

UMass Lowell Center for Asian American Studies presents

2017 Southeast Asian American Studies Conference Community Engagement, Research, & Policy in Action

July 27-29, 2017

UMass Lowell South Campus
Lowell, MA

A national summit of scholars, students, policymakers, community workers, & artists on urgent issues facing Southeast Asians in the U.S.

Topics include community histories, education, civic engagement, entrepreneurship, health, archives and oral histories, and much more.

Film showcase, live performances, and hands-on workshops.

Friday Night Banquet @ Pailin City (sponsored by Enterprise Bank): $20 adults/$10 youth.

For full conference information (including registration and program), please visit <https://www.uml.edu/conferences/seaas-2017/> or email 2017seaas@uml.edu.

Cosponsors include Enterprise Bank; UMass Lowell College of Fine Arts, Humanities, & Social Sciences, Nancy Donahue Endowed Professor in the Arts, American Studies, Art & Design, Asian Studies, Center for Community Research & Engagement, Center for Population Health, Center for Women & Work, College of Health Sciences, Digital Media, Graduate School of Education, English, History, Labor Education, Labor Studies Minor, Peace & Conflict Studies, Political Science, Public Health, Sociology; Prof. Robert Forrant; Mai Nguyen; Angkor Dance Troupe; Cambodian Mutual Assistance Association of Greater Lowell; Indochinese Refugee Fund; Program for Asian American Student Advancement at Middlesex Community College; SayDaNar Community Development Center; University of Connecticut Asian & Asian American Studies Institute; & University of Minnesota Immigration History Research Center.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Lowell Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency. This conference has been made possible in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Enterprise Bank
CREATE SUCCESS

